

Date Changed For 'Evening Of Music' At Public Library

"The Evening Of Music," popular feature of the music department of the Santa Cruz Public library, will be held Wednesday evening this week instead of Tuesday so as not to conflict with the Civic Music Association concert set for Tuesday night in the civic auditorium.

The change is for this week only. After this week, the library event again will be on Tuesday evenings.

Verdi's "Aida" will be the opera featured this week. Admission is free and persons of all ages are invited.

The program begins at 7:30 o'clock.

"Aida," to be discussed by Roy Innes, is one of the most popular of all grand operas and ranks as one of Verdi's "big four," the others being "La Traviata," "Il Trovatore" and "Rigoletto." The ballet in "Aida" is an added feature that makes the opera pleasing to both eye and ear, and makes it a big box office attraction. Some of the recording artists to be heard
