

Juvenile Hall On Its Way

8-22-67

Digging up the first official spadefuls of earth yesterday for the county's $800,000 juvenile hall are Probation Officer James Solomon, left, Juvenile Court Judge Gilbert Perry, Juvenile Justice Commissioner Loyd

Miller, and Supervisors' Chairman Tom Black. Construction of the hall by Bogard Construction will take eight to 10 months. It should be ready for occupancy by 40 or more youths by June of 1968.
