Blind, and Beautiful

Forty blind persons — with a little help from 14 volunteers — make beautiful things at their bi-monthly Lamplighter Club of the Blind meetings at Harvey West Clubhouse.

Every year, they assemble the pine cone wreaths, aprons, loomed rugs, jewelry, knitted and crocheted items and other novelties they have made and stage a bazaar and open house.

All proceeds are divided among the members at Christmas. But they help others, too, contributing to a campership for a blind child to attend Camp Harmon every year, among other charitable projects. Money for these efforts comes from their monthly rummage and white elephant sales.

Their annual Bazaar and Hospitality Day will be Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the clubhouse, and the public is invited to come, if only to see what the group accomplishes, says Mrs. Cecil Bills, volunteer director.

There will be refreshments, too.

For the past several years, the members have annually collected more than 30,000 discount coupons for VA hospital recreation equipment, and the same amount of Betty Crocker coupons for the Sixth District California PTA Braille Project.

The Lamplighters are partially sponsored by local Lions Clubs.
