

coming harvest season.

and the failure of the programs

last year, said

'ONE, TWO . . . ' — Sheriff's Deputy Joseph Bird is participating in what's getting to be a pastime at Santa Cruz —counting the floors on the county's new five-story courthouse. What makes things interesting is that it has six stories. The building's designers quickly point out the top deck is a "penthouse," which is not considered a floor.

★ ★ ★

County officials are even quicker to point out that it isn't a real penthouse. It will, they say, house the heating and elevator motor systems.

4/29/64