Steinem Spiel

Don't ms. the upcoming talk by magazine editor, world-famous feminist and all-around sharp person Gloria Steinem, who'll be speaking her mind Tuesday at noon in the Pogonip Club. The $10 admission includes lunch, wine and the discourse.

To get you in the proper mood, here are a few stray quotes from Steinem, long one of the wittier spokespersons for the women's movement.

"All over America women are watching the 'ring around the collar' commercials on television. They're waiting for the day when the wife turns to her husband and says: 'Why don't you wash your neck?'"

"I have discovered that being famous isn't the worst crime a woman can commit...the worst is to be thin."
