Sculptor Hank Moller

Art and Sculpture Today Up Coast

Artist Maryjo Koch and sculptor Hank Moller will have a show-sale of their work today from 10-5 at New Davenport Cash Store up the coast.

Maryjo was educated at San Jose State University, worked for years for an environmental designer in San Francisco as a renderer, also as a free lancer.

She mainly works in oils on canvas or gesso panels, and specializes in portraits and florals.

She has a studio in Bonny Doon where she lives with her husband and three children.

Hank Moller apprenticed at Big Creek Pottery but mainly is self-taught. He has been showing at Renaissance Faires in San Francisco and Los Angeles for 14 years and well as in private shows.

Recently his work as accepted for the World Fantasy Expo at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley.

His works mainly are porcelain and high-fire stoneware and now he is in the process of building a studio for casting in bronze and precious metals in Bonny Doon where he has lived for the past 25 years.
