Library Bond Poster Contest Winners Named

Winners in the Santa Cruz Public library poster contest were announced yesterday.

The posters, which urged support of the $1.4 million library bond issue (Measure B) on Tuesday's ballot, were displayed at the library during an open house yesterday.

Royce Krilanovich received $5 for first prize; Maureen Graybill was second and Cathy Videtta, third. All are 10th graders at Holy Cross High school.

Judges were Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. Worth Brown and Robert Pio, co-owner of the Castle Art Gallery.

The Citizens Committee for Library Bonds said 12 more organizations have endorsed the library bond measure, bringing the total of 50.

Among the latest groups are: Santa Cruz Junior Chamber of Commerce, Young Women's Christian Association, Y-Wives of the YWCA, Santa Cruz 20-30 club, East Santa Cruz Lions club, San Lorenzo Valley Chamber of Commerce, Ben Lomond Recreation district, Santa Cruz Art League, Inc., Young Ladies Institute No. 95, Brancifore Junior High school P-TA, the Unitarian Universal Fellowship of Santa Cruz and the Santa Cruz Exchange club.
