

Beauty Pageant

New Miss SC County Cabrillo College student

Sentinel staff report

DARCI ROBERTSON, 18 was crowned Miss Santa Cruz County 2000 Sunday, winning a $3,500 scholarship and a chance to compete in the Miss California Pageant to be held in June. Randi Armour, Miss Santa Cruz County 1999, crowned Robertson at the Henry J. Mello Center for the Performing Arts in Watsonville.

The new Miss Santa Cruz County is a graduate of Monte Vista and is attending Cabrillo College.

She is involved with a local organization called Society Against Drugs, an organization which educates young people on the abuse of drugs. For her talent demonstration, Robertson performed the operatic aria, "Saper Veriste."

First Runner-up, UC Santa Cruz student Jasmine Silva, 21, received a $1,000 scholarship. Second Runner-up, Cabrillo student Janie Oliver, 17, received an $800 scholarship. Third Runner-up, Stephanie Huber, 20, received a $700 scholarship. Stephanie attends CA State University Monterey Bay. Fourth Runner-up, Harbor High senior Haley Malmin, 18, received a $600 scholarship. Stephanie Huber was also picked by her fellow contestants as Miss Congeniality and will receive a $200 scholarship.

The other seven non-finalists received a $300 scholarship. They are Shannon Birt, Heidi Scott, Lacy Tomasello, Shawna Brim, Sydney Edwards, Monica Paknad, and Melissa Williams. There was a tie for the Dick Brandberg Memorial Community Service Award from the Aptos Lions Club. Both Janie Oliver and Haley Malmin received a $250 scholarship. The Kelly Chilcote Memorial Scholarship of $500 was given to Jasmine Silva for her community service work with the sick and elderly. This scholarship was presented from the Valley Heights Senior Community/Valley Convalescent Hospital. The Fundraising Achievement Award of a $100 scholarship was given to Lacy Tomasello.

Robertson