Mayor C. L. Dysle (left) hands out the first of 92 service pins awarded last night to city employees with from five years to almost 30 years of service to their credit. George Perry receives the 25-year award from the mayor, while behind him, Leslie Bias, Louis Lippi, Herbert Wenks and John Sinnott await their turns. Absent from this picture is Warren Baldwin, also recipient of a 25-year award. The presentation was one of the highlights of last night's Christmas party of the city employees and their families.
