

Leask's opens another new store in Davenport

In truth, this was Leask's temporary store located about 200 feet behind where their front door on Pacific Avenue is now. The photo was taken March or April of 1906 after the earthquake and during the construction of the W.H. Weeks-designed newer and bigger store. Church Street is on the left of the picture.