

Man Has Ravaged

Privately-owned Bonita Lagoon, although altered by man to a completely fresh-water state, still is a picturesque resting spot for wildlife flying south . . . while county-owned

Moran Lake is so polluted that little wildlife stops there. Plans are in the making for the restoration of Moran.