Always Room For More In Rug Class

Santa Cruz County Government Seeks Clerk-Typists

Several positions are open for

There's room for more in this rug braiding class at the Santa Cruz Evening high school. In the foreground Mrs. James Parsons is making a whopper. Standing in the background is Mrs. Ethel Smith, instructor with other students, Louis King and Mrs. George W. Smiley. Tuition is $1 per semester. Many other classes at the school have room for more. All you have to do is show up at the Santa Cruz high school.
