Manhunt on for SC escapees p. 9

The Federal Bureau of Investigations is launching an "intense manhunt" in the United States and abroad for two men who escaped from Santa Cruz County jail Oct. 22.

The FBI's San Francisco office announced yesterday that it is looking for Johnny David Zamarron and Richard Anthony Losoya Rubio.

When they escaped, both Zamarron and Rubio were awaiting trial for felony kidnapping and robbery in Santa Cruz.

Bench warrants were issued by Santa Cruz Superior Court, but investigators later determined that both men may have fled the state. County officials went to U.S. District Court in San Jose Wednesday to obtain federal fugitive warrants.

Both men are described as Hispanic; Zamarron, 43, is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 320 pounds, and Rubio, 21, is 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds.
