

Kurt Ellison

Last pole

PG&E workers take down last utility pole in Aptos this morning, signalling the completion of the first phase of a $2.2 million project of burying all utility lines in Aptos Village. PG&E, in concert with Pacific Bell and Group W Cable, will complete what amounts to the largest cable burying project yet undertaken in the county beginning in July.