

Vents

Social and Club News, Classified Ads, Radio and TV Logs, Vital Statistics, Editorial Features

Santa Cruz Sentinel

SANTA CRUZ, CALIFORNIA,
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1956

GRATEFUL FOR LAND OF OPPORTUNITY are Mr. and Mrs. Helmut (Carl) Buse, above, newcomers to Santa Cruz from Bremerhaven, Germany. Although like any other young couples they now are living on the proverbial shoestring, the Buses know that such an economic situation need be only temporary in this country. He is an electrician, now serving apprenticeship with a local firm until he meets union requirements, and she is a surgical nurse, planning to continue this profession on completion of her English course at the Evening School. They make their home at 317 Ocean street, sharing it with a pet parakeet.

Thanksgiving means so many things

*Thou that hast given
so much to us,
give one thing more . . .
a grateful heart.*

. . . George Herbert, 1620

GRATEFUL FOR NEW HOME in Santa Cruz overlooking Monterey bay are Mr. and Mrs. Keith Larkin and four-year-old son, Kevin, above, who moved here this last month from Sacramento. With Larkin self-employed as head of his own aircraft company with coast-to-coast operations, this young family had a choice of living anywhere in the U.S. They said they "fell in love"

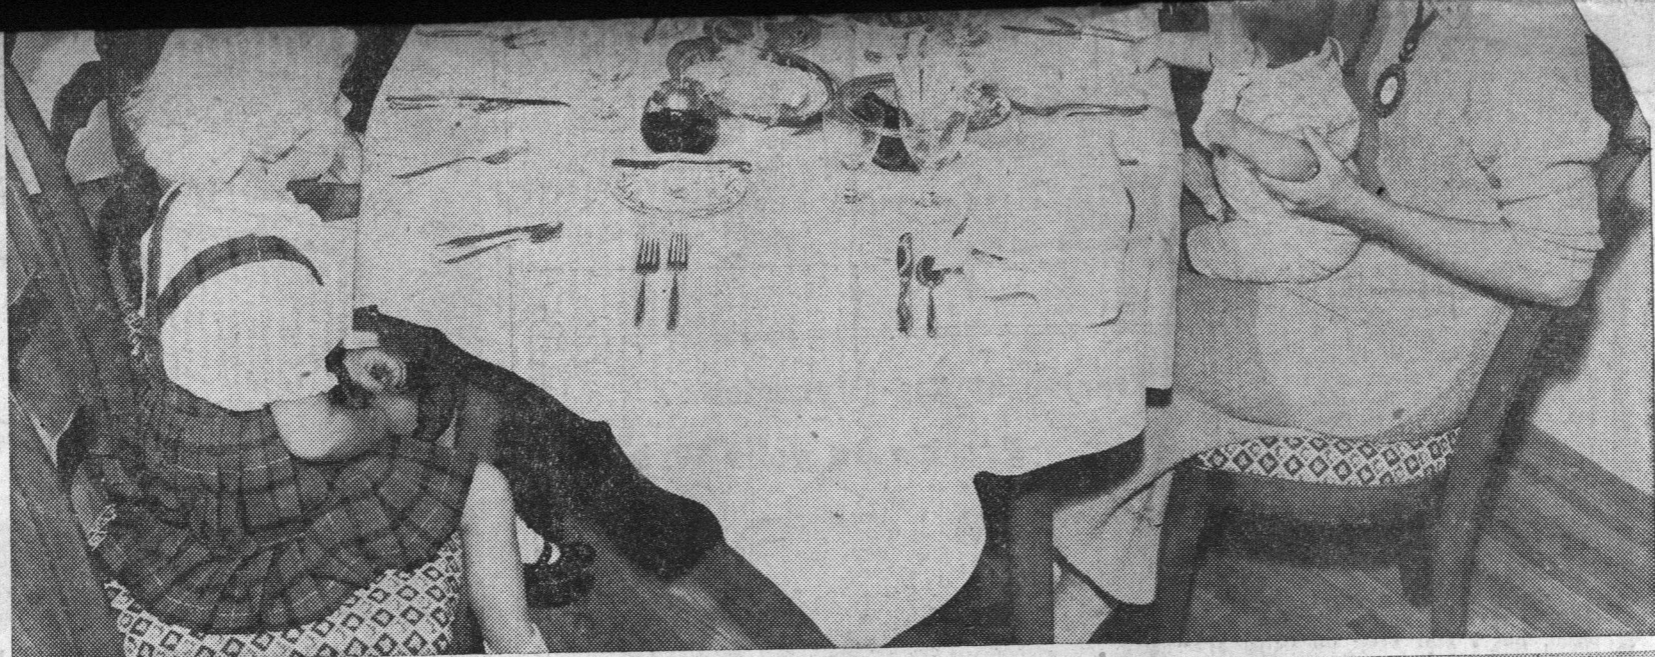

GRATEFUL FOR A WELL-LADEN TABLE are the Darrows, at right, representing three generations at Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Darrow, the grandparents, are hosts at their home, 274 Goss avenue. Sons Kermit, left, and Robert are seated alongside their respective wives and children, Lizabeth, and Robbie, 6 months. It's granddad's traditional role to carve the festive bird, assisted by grandmother who waits to serve her extra-special raisin dressing.

GRATEFUL FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM, J. L. Chiorini family of 251 Peyton Street, below, attends mass together at Holy Cross church. Santa Cruz' former mayor comes up the steps with his father, Mrs. Mary Chiorini, his wife and children, 16-year-old twins, Ann and John, and Mary Colette, 11. One of the teachers from the convent is seen in the background, framed by the Catholic church's picturesque Gothic archway.

Photo-Feature by Betty Bushman and Webber's Photographers, Dave Weaver and Gordon Lyon

and parks, and friendly, small-town atmosphere. Larkin's company specializes in the new field of weather modification or cloud seeding, bringing rain to drought-stricken areas. By way of contrast, their home at 1306 East Cliff drive typifies "California living" with a living room opening onto a sunny yard at shore cliff's edge.

GRATEFUL FOR EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES are America's youth, as represented by these Bay View third graders, below, learning about the first Thanksgiving. Student Teacher Juliana Smith, San Jose State senior, instructs this interested group, left to right, Ian Philleo, Gregory Rice, Nancy Twohig, Jane Soo Hoo, Judith Ghidinelli, Bryan Loehr and Nancy Leonard.

