

True

Sentinel

Thursday, January 19, 1978 —29

Harvey West Oak Tree's Long Life At An End

One of the venerable oak trees in a Harvey West Park grove has fallen during recent storms, the second tree in the park to do so during recent months. The tree, located near the picnic tables across from the baseball diamonds, was estimated at over 50 years old, according to a parks department spokesman.