

Brookdale

A look into the Valley's past

The Brookdale Fish Hatchery, built in 1902 at the end of Larkspur street, was leased by the State from the Logan family for $1 a year. It was sold to Jerry Pollack in the late 1940's who remodeled it and made it into a home that is now owned by Jan Van Eyck.