

Transit facility fete set

SANTA CRUZ — A ceremonial opening is in store for the Metropolitan Transit District's new garage Friday at 2:30 p.m. and Assemblyman Sam Farr is the featured dignitary. Located at 138 Golf Club Drive, the garage will handle minor maintenance for the district's fleet. Along with opening speeches, there will be piano music and refreshments between 2 and 4 p.m. Farr will be joined by representatives of the state Department of Transportation and the local transit district. The public is invited and free shuttle buses will run from downtown to the garage from 2 to 4 p.m.
