New West SC Bank To Open

John M. Allen (left) new manager of County Bank's West Santa Cruz office at Mission and DuFour streets, receives keys to front door from Victor Bogard, general contractor for the building. The new bank, which opens officially for business

Monday, will hold open house tomorrow afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock. Demonstrations of electronic automation equipment, stunts and refreshments are planned. The new office is the first bank in West Santa Cruz to render community banking service.
