

CUTTING DOWN TREES

Workman are busy cutting down some of the large maple trees in the old Cooper grounds located close to the Soquel avenue bridge n the river bottom. The grove for some years past has been used as a camp ground and on occasional religious camp meetings were held by churches of different denominations.