Churches - 1960 Soquel Church 96th Birthday

Soquel's Congregational church, also known as "the little white church in the vale", will be 96 years old Sunday and special services are planned to commemorate the event.

Greeters at the 10:30 a.m. service will be H. Y. Stuart, Alice and Al Bowman, long time residents of Soquel and church members. They will be dressed in early day attire. Ceodola Duff, whose father, John Parrish, donated the land on which the church stands, and Lowell O. West, who received infant baptism in the sanctuary of the church in 1898, also will be present.

Rev. Dr. Arthur Seebart will deliver the pentecost and anniversary sermon. Bernice Lunt will direct the chancel choir and the soloist, Lorraine Abraham, will sing "Bless This House".

Following the service, Hazel Bardt, who was born north of Soquel, and Myra Archibald, resident since 1896, will pour dressed in early day costumes. Interested persons are invited to participate in the church anniversary.
