

Fun in the sun at the Music Festival

Hundreds gathered by Duck Island Saturday in Santa Cruz for the 2nd concert of the first weekend of the seventeenth Cabrillo Music Festival

Ken Harrison conducts on the island

17th annual event begins

Fun in the sun was on the agenda as the Cabrillo Music Festival began last weekend with outdoor concerts at Duck Island and Abbott Square in Santa Cruz. The Festival moves indoors Thursday with a concert at the Cocoanut Grove featuring works by Virgil Thomson, P.D.Q. Bach, Ralph Vaughan Williams and Eric Stokes. The event is for season ticket holders only.

A cool kid on a warm day

Photos by Kurt Ellison

Drummer Rick North, a performer

A delighted visitor, a spectator

A gamelan group banged out some Lou Harrison Indonesian-like music in Abbott Square behind the Cooperhouse in Santa Cruz Saturday.