

Ready To Offer Aid

These are some of the key men in Santa Cruz who are in a position to refer persons to the Family Service agency of Santa Cruz county. Geared to handle persons in every income bracket, Family Service is open to persons or families in trouble. From left, seated, are: Ernie Balke, county probation officer; Dr. Marvin Naman, children's doctor; Superior Judge Gilbert Perry; Douglas James, sheriff; standing, from left, Rev. Alexander Anderson, rector of the Calvary Episcopal church; Rev. J. Bernard Corneliussen of the First Congregational church; Santa Cruz Mayor Dr. Ted Foster, and lawyer Eugene Adams.

Customer Now Has Plenty Of Milk

Royal Center, Ind. (AP) — Mrs. Marjorie Kleeman vows never again to let empty milk bottles stack up in her kitchen. She washed 14 bottles recently, set them on her porch and found the next day that the milkman had obligingly left 14 quarts of milk in their place.

The Mennonites received their name from Menno Simons, who was the leader of the sect in Holland.

Family Service Agency Joins Santa Cruz Community Chest

By Wally Trabing

Two wonderful things are happening to the Family Service agency of Santa Cruz county, according to Mrs. Norman Lezin, president of its board of directors.

First, the agency has been voted into the Community Chest family, and following participation in next October's fund campaign, will start receiving financial aid in January.

Second is the Family Service benefit performance Friday at 8:15 p.m. of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial By Jury," in the Santa Cruz high school auditorium, by the Santa Cruz Madrigal Singers.

What is the Family Service Agency?

The organization has been in operation on a limited basis for more than a year. It is a non-profit, community-sponsored service, designed to provide skilled family counseling help for anyone in the county.

According to Mrs. Lezin, the only function of the agency is professional help and guidance with family problems complementing the work of various other agencies.

"Problems that relate to family life, marriage difficulties, trouble with in-laws, chronic budget deficits, job adjustments and teen-age flare-ups, are brought to the agency for help," she said.

Because of limited funds the office at 1545½ Pacific avenue has been opened only on a minimum schedule of Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Richard Gilbert, a psychiatric social worker, is the director.

A schedule of fees based on ability to pay, has been established, thus making the service available to all income brackets. The service also maintains a 24-hour answering service at GA 6-3649.

Gilbert reports that 50 cases handled by the service have been closed. There are 12 active cases and a small waiting list.

Besides Mrs. Lezin, directors are: Dr. Ambrose A. Cowden, Mrs. Fred Weaver, Winona Jones, Mrs. Bruce Woolpert, Rev. Owen Gramps, Mrs. Ted Harbert, Mrs. Thomas Schnoor, Mrs. Frank Helenthal Jr., Dr. Donald Pine, Harry Brauer, Rev. Alexander Anderson, Mrs. Gilbert Nichols, Mrs. Charles Houlihan, Mrs. Hubert Wyckoff and Lt. Col. Roy Johnston.
