

a Brooklyn plant of the New York Daily News, and police reported recovery of $59,000.

pera contract as top award in the finals of the Met's annual auditions.

line operator, to stop under Sallee's arm pits. They then pulled him free.

That's The Campus, Right There 4-7-61

Mayor Harold Carriger points to the general University of California campus area on a Santa Cruz master plan. This was for the benefit of James H.

Corley, second left, university vice president on governmental affairs, who participated in a preliminary planning session with city and county officials yesterday. Councilman Ted Foster represented the mayor's university planning committee and Supervisor Hulda McLean the county at the session.

UCSC - History