"Get me to the church on time" could mean a long wait at the door for county residents who forgot to set their clocks back one hour last night to conform to Pacific Standard Time. Yes, it's that time for confusion again. For example, if you didn't change your clock last night, and it now says 8 a.m., you're in error. Actually, it's only 7 o'clock, so go back to sleep for an hour. Our early birds are the A. R. Booye family of Santa Cruz — Priscilla, 12, Rick, 14, Daniel, 6, Lori, 8, Mr. and Mrs. Booye, and David, 11.
