

Historical Felton Bridge

Plans were made at a meeting of the San Lorenzo valley chamber of commerce last night to secure funds to restore this covered bridge at Felton over the San Lorenzo river. It is one of three covered bridges in the county and was built in 1892. It has not been used for a decade and needs new planking, siding, and redwood shakes. Restoration plans were made eight years ago but abandoned due to the war.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★