

Capitola

4—Green Sheet, Wednesday, September 12, 1979

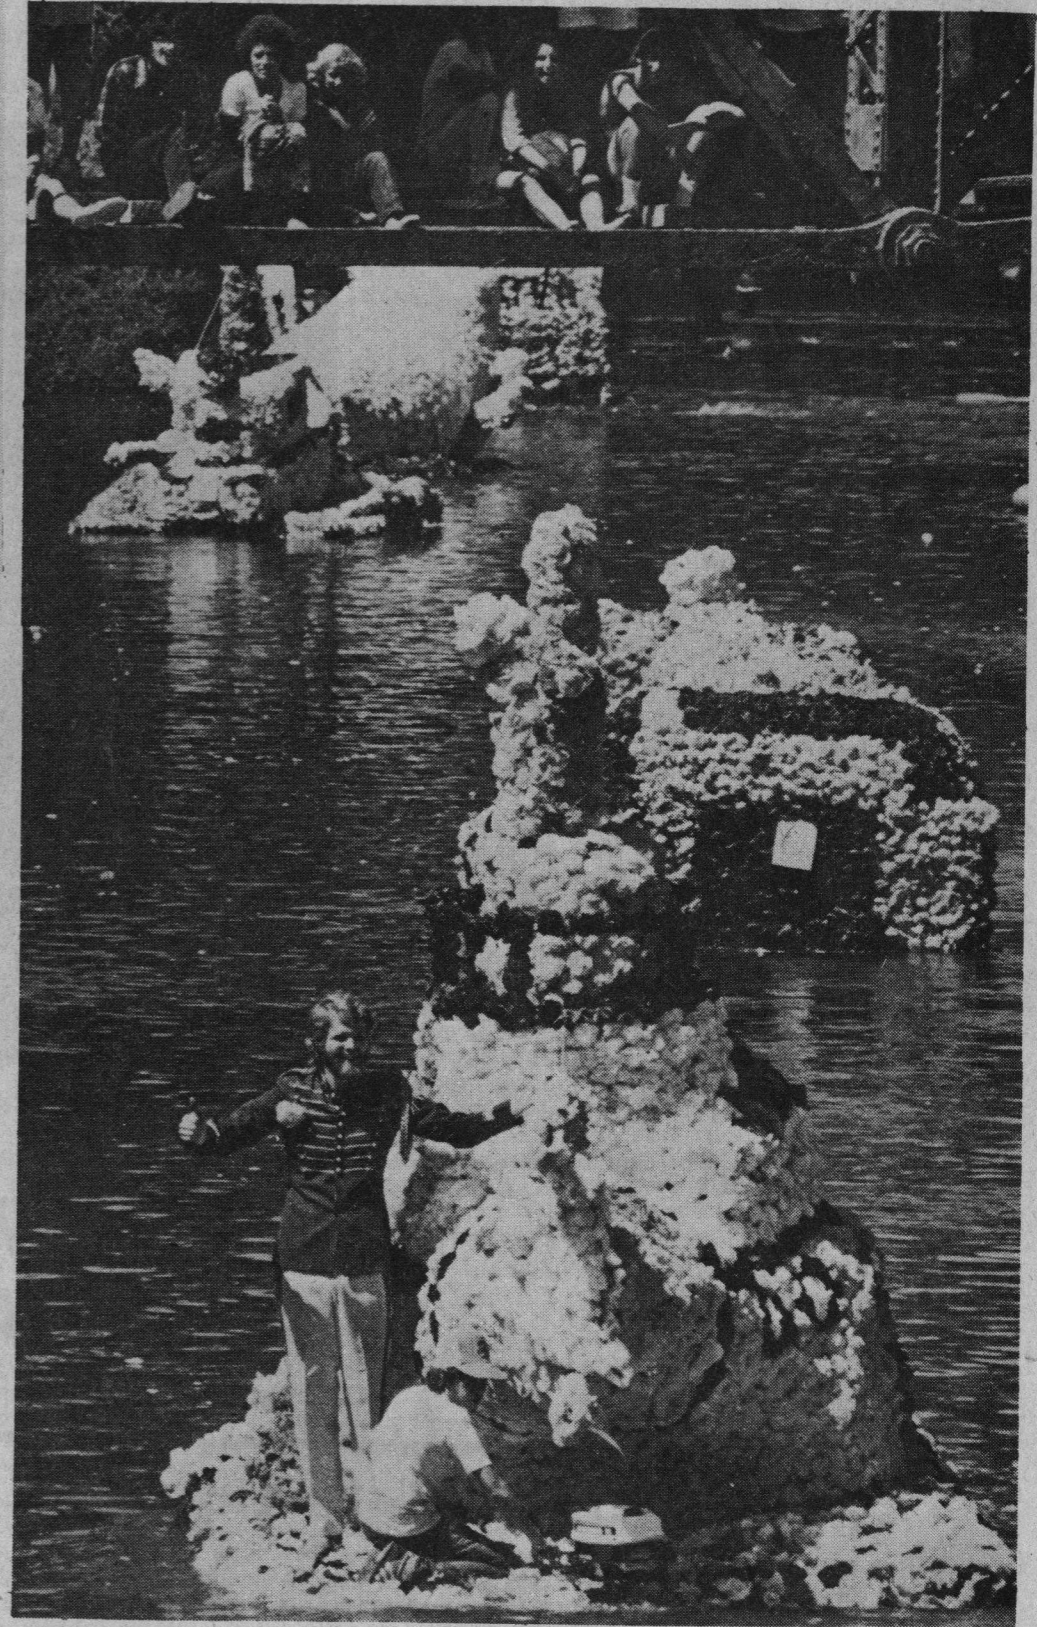

15,000 watch floats sail down Soquel Creek

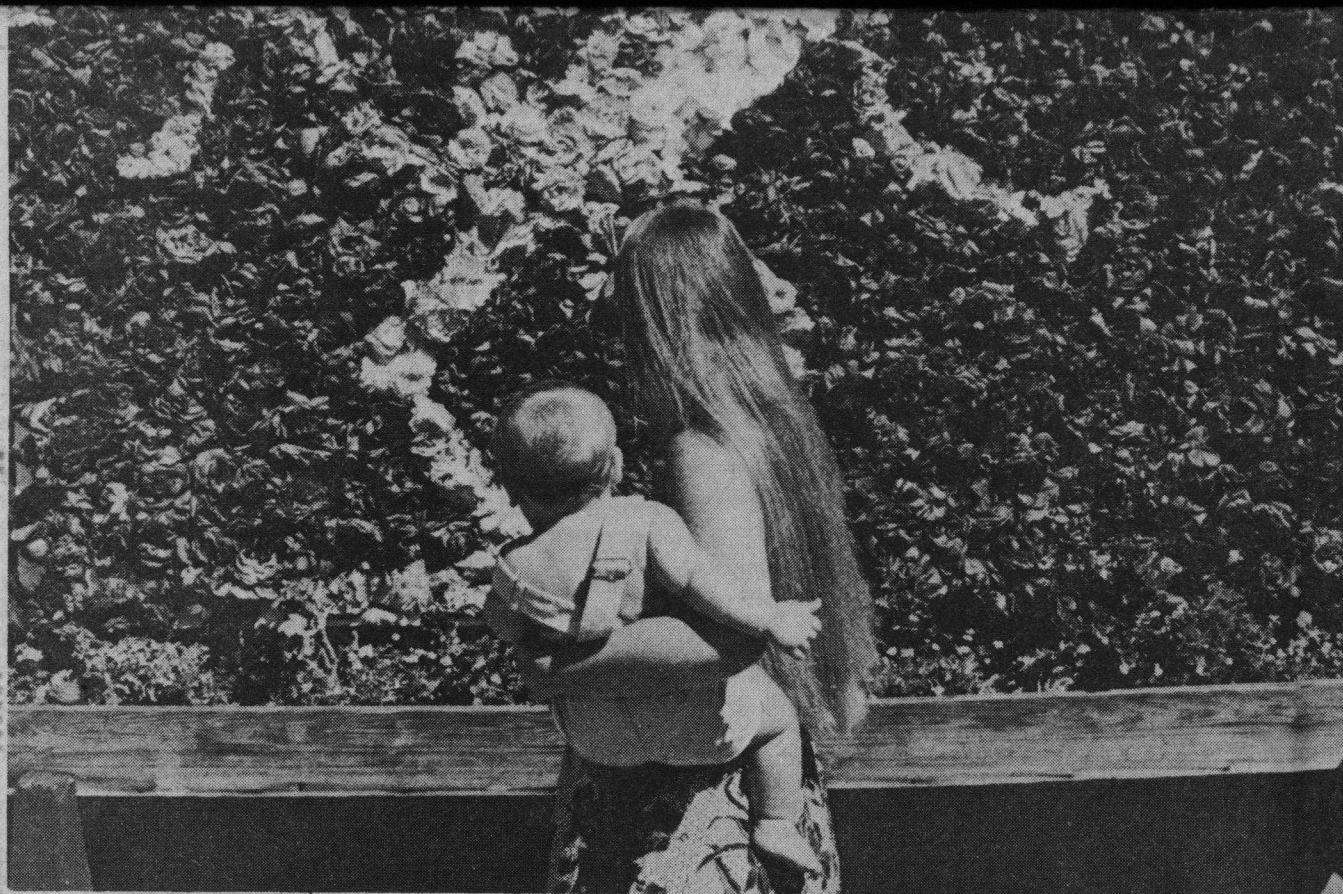

A crowd of more than 15,000 people gathered Sunday for the 26th edition of the Capitola Begonia Festival.

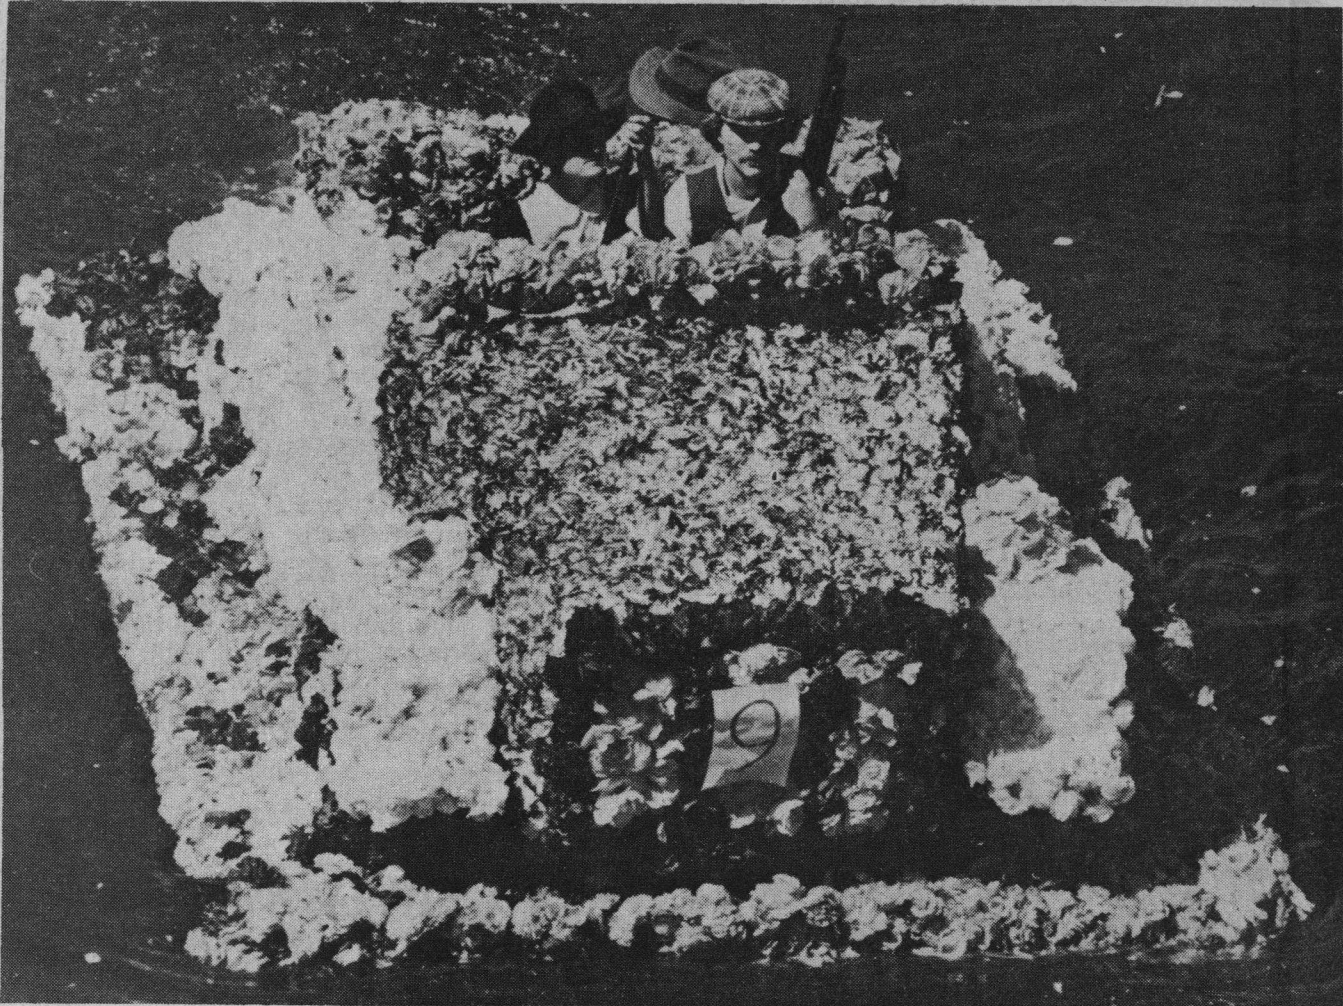

Photos
by
Kurt Ellison

The Yellow Submarine — winner of the Grand Sweepstakes award — leads the parade Sunday afternoon.

The Pink Panther walked across the front of Polar Bear ice cream amusing young and the not-so-old.

Bonnie and Clyde — the notorious bandit duo — ride their way to a third place for Erik's Deli.

Donald Duck gets some last minute sprucing up Sunday from a volunteer.