

New Holy Cross School Nears Completion

Nearly completed is the new Holy Cross elementary school with seven classrooms, which will handle children from kindergarten to the sixth grades. It will be ready for the next school year. The new school, costing approximately $90,000, was made possible through church fund drives and membership donations. It is located on Mission and Sylvar streets near the present Holy Cross school.

New Film Filled With Romance

By Leslie Dard

"The Lady Takes a Flyer," which comes to the Del Mar today, is a CinemaScope-color adventure tale with a heavy dose of romance.

Lana Turner, currently up for Academy award consideration as "best actress" of the year for her performance in "Peyton Place," co-stars as a lady flyer involved

Liz Can't Believe Mike Is Dead

By James Bacon

Hollywood (P). — Elizabeth Taylor, filled with sedatives and fighting a 102-degree fever, babbled over and over again yesterday:

"I can't believe it's Mike." The beautiful star and her husband, Mike Todd, had a pact between them: "Whither thou goest, I goest too."

and three others perished in the crash of the private plane he had recently dubbed: The Lucky Liz."

Like Liz, others who knew Todd found it hard to believe he was dead. This was a hurricane in human motion, a many always on a runaway horse.

He was 50 but no one ever heard it from him.

"I got a new birth certificate when I married Liz," he once
