

Hankal Appointed To Board Of Directors

The Board of Directors of County Bank has approved the appointment of Michael C. Hankal as a member of the board to fill the vacancy created by R.J. Seller's retirement.

Hankal, executive vice-president and chief administrative officer, joined County Bank in 1971, with eight years of financial and management experience as a CPA for international and community public accounting firms and various management positions in the electronics industry.

He holds a bachelor's and masters degree in business administration from Santa Clara University and a lifetime college teaching credential, awarded to him in March of 1971. He completed advanced college level courses in bank credit, operations and administrative management at the Pacific Coast Banking School, University of Washington's three-year graduate school of bank management in Seattle, Wash., receiving his graduation certificate in August of 1979.

Hankal has been actively interested in community affairs through directorship in the Santa Cruz Symphony; Director of Chamber of Commerce and

Michael C. Hankal

Chairman of the Re-accréditation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce; member of the Finance Committee of Dominican Hospital; as an instructor for the American Institute of Banking at Cabrillo College; member of Santa Cruz Lions Club and coach for the Santa Cruz Youth

Soccer League. His professional associations include Bank Administration Institute, American Management Association, American Institute of CPA and the California Teachers Association.

He and his wife Michal and family live in the Santa Cruz area.