

RECORDED SAID LAST YEAR. I JUST

✓ SPORTS
Facts, figures on Wharf race

SANTA CRUZ — Facts and figures pertaining to the annual Wharf-to-Wharf Race between Santa Cruz and Capitola:

RECORDS — Men: Duncan Macdonald, 26:36 (1981); Women: Laurie Binder, 31:10 (1983).

PRIZES — All registered runners will be eligible for the special prize drawing at 10:30 a.m. The awards ceremony will follow. Post-race festivities will be on Capitola Beach.

WHEN — July 28, 1985, at 8:30 a.m. Entry packets and gift packs may be obtained at race headquarters at the Dream Inn, on the beach near Santa Cruz Municipal Wharf from noon to 6 p.m., or on race day beginning at 6 a.m.

WHERE — The 5.813-mile race starts at the Santa Cruz Municipal Wharf with a dash down Beach Street, past the Boardwalk, crosses the San Lorenzo River Bridge and meanders through Seaside neighborhoods to the yacht harbor.

The middle of the course skirts Twin Lakes Beach, then winds along Schwan Lake and Corcoran Lagoon wildlife sanctuaries before opening into the ocean bluffs at Pleasure Point. The last mile slopes down into the village of Capitola-by-the-Sea, past its wharf, to finish on the beach esplanade.

HOW — To register, pick up entry forms at local sporting goods stores and stores that sell running shoes. Entry forms should be mailed along with a $5 check to: Wharf-to-Wharf Race, PO Box 307, Capitola, Calif. 95010.

MORE DETAILS — Additional information on the annual race may be obtained by calling 475-2196.

7-18-85