

Churches to 1969 Santa Cruz Scene

Al Cunningham, whose one-man show currently is at The Castle Art gallery, came down from San Francisco this weekend to paint some of his favorite Santa Cruz scenes. One will be presented to Mayor Bert Snyder this afternoon at the gallery. Above, Cunningham captures the New England flavor in watercolors he said he feels expressed by Holy Cross church.

Blood Drawing Slated Tomorrow

Santa Cruz hospitals used 1943 pints of blood during 1962 although only 1434 were donated locally, according to Sylvia Gerig, executive director of Santa Cruz Red Cross chapter.

She urged Santa Cruzans who have not given in the past three months to make contributions to-

VIET CONG PROPOSES FOUR-DAY HOLIDAY

Tokyo (AP) — South Viet Nam Communist Viet Cong have proposed a four-day cease-fire in the civil war to celebrate the New Year under the lunar calendar.