Ja Vaughn, Miss Santa Cruz County of 1963, christens a new sail boat arrival in the new Santa Cruz Yacht harbor in a unusual manner—with a UNICEF carton. Tom Dorris, Santa Cruz High school student, stands by to catch the pennies.

What this all leads up to is that hundreds of youths will be out Halloween night trick or treating for pennies which will be given to UNICEF for underprivileged children of the world. The boat is the Katalmar, owned by Peter Young.
