

Native Daughters Install New Officers

California's Golden Heritage was the theme for installation ceremonies at concluding grand parlor sessions of Native Daughters of the Golden West at Santa Cruz civic auditorium. And Sandra Becker, newly-crowned Miss California was a surprise guest.

Opening ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Lela Swasey of Santa Cruz parlor, general chairman for the four-day convale, and a past grand president.

Mrs. Louis Hansen of Glendale made the introductions and Mrs. Max Brice of San Quentin served as installing officer. Both women are past grand presidents of the order, the state's oldest fraternal and patriotic lodge for women.

Soloist for the event was Mrs. Nancy Conens of Oakland. Members of El Pinal parlor of Cambria served as escorts.

Following the installation ceremony Miss Becker, newly-crowned Miss California, was introduced by Mrs. Swasey. A reception followed. Background for the civic auditorium installation setting was designed and painted by Ralph Gray, local artist.

Mrs. Katie G. Jewett of Cambria, new grand president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, stands in the center, surrounded by her staff for the coming year. They include, from left, Mrs. Rae Rominger of Sacramento, grand inside sentinel; Mrs. Nancy Conens of San Francisco, grand trustee; Mrs. Marie C. Landini of Palo Alto, outside sentinel; Mrs. Paul Righetti of Orcutt, grand trustee; Mrs. Everal Mallette of

Oroville, grand trustee; Mrs. Julius Caiocca of St. Helena, grand vice president; Mrs. Emmett Adams of Willows, junior past grand president; Mrs. Lyall Goldie of San Gabriel, grand marshal; Mrs. Curtis Doss of Whittier, grand organist; Mrs. Frank Finocchio of Hanford, grand trustee; Mrs. Virginia McCombs of Modesto, grand trustee; Mrs. Vance Miller of Glendale, grand trustee, and Mrs. Joseph Bondanza of San Francisco, grand trustee. The new staff was seated at closing NDGW grand parlor ceremonies at Santa Cruz civic auditorium.

USSR ASKS TREATY

WITH TURKEY

Moscow (AP). — In the first interview given since he became Soviet premier eight months ago, Alexei N. Kosygin called Friday for a Soviet friendship treaty with Turkey.

Japan's Premier Sato Faces First Test In National Vote

