"Few people," he said, "are aware of what Goodwill means to a community in terms of saving tax dollars.

"For example, local Goodwill employes will pay some $26.979 in Social Security and another $26.963 in federal income taxes.

"The total payroll this year will be about $296.902. These three figures come to $350,818.

"Employes receive Blue Cross insurance to the tune of $8940." But more important are the human statistics.

Goodwill helps the handicapped do a day's work, allows them to support themselves and their families.
