

A Floral Salute Today To UCSC

A floral welcome to the University of California, Santa Cruz, campus is being given today at the Harvey West clubhouse.

The Santa Cruz Garden club and the Santa Cruz department of parks and recreation are jointly sponsoring the spring garden show. Doors will be open from 2 to 8 p.m. Blue and gold blooms, reflecting the college official colors, dominate the show.

General chairman of the event is Bruce Antonelli. Coordinating the event are Leavitt McQuesten, president of the garden club, and Carl Bengston, parks and recreation director. Henry Ifland is the designer of the show and Mrs. Jeanette Hamilton is chairman of the floral arrangements. A sale of show plants will be held tomorrow at the clubhouse from 9 a.m. to noon.

At, left, above, Dean McHenry, chancellor of the University of California, Santa Cruz, talks with Mrs. Jeanette Hamilton and Leavitt McQuesten about the flower show being held today at the Harvey West clubhouse. In photo at left is Bruce Antonelli, show chairman. The show is designed as a floral welcome to the campus.

Tree'n'Sea Living

Sunday, May 22, 1966

Santa Cruz Sentinel 1A