

Kemper, Attorney Confer

Edmund Emil Kemper listens to a last word of advice from his attorney Roland Hall (to the right of Kemper) before being taken from the courtroom Monday. Hall had represented the accused slayer two years ago in a civil matter. During the arraignment, Judge Donald O. May placed a news gag rule on officials connected with the Kemper case, following a request by Hall. At a press conference two hours before the court hearing, Dist. Atty. Peter Chang explained in detail about Kemper's alleged murders, because, in the DA's words, the public has a right to know the details of the case.
