Disaster Information

Disaster Workshop

A workshop on how to deal with disaster problems and how to prevent them will be given by the Friends of the Santa Cruz Public Libraries Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Felton Presbyterian Church.

Experts from many fields will speak on topics ranging from emergency grants and tax relief to repairing mud-covered appliances, and explain what to do now to protect oneself and family when disaster strikes.

For more information, call 475-1699 weekdays or 335-2414 weekends.

Recovery Session

Victims of the Jan. 4 storm are invited to attend community recovery group sessions on Monday nights in Felton and on Tuesday nights in Ben Lomond.

The Felton meetings begin at 7:30 at the Presbyterian Church, 6090 Highway 9, and the Ben Lomond sessions are at 7:30 at the office of Dr. David Resneck-Sannes, 231 Main St.

The purpose of these meetings, sponsored by Project COPE, Counseling Ordinary People in Emergency, is to provide storm victims with a forum for talking about their experiences, to get information on common responses during a disaster and to help solve problems experienced by children and families as a result of the storm.

For more information, call 425-0827 or 425-2237.

Food And Diapers

The First Baptist Church of Boulder Creek has announced it has an abundance of food and diapers for disaster victims.

The food is available at the church, 12465 Highway 9, daily between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Additional information, including requests for deliveries to isolated families, is available by calling 338-3700.
