

Sharp Quake Rocks

Civil Service - City

City Employes Honored For Years Of Service

Little Girls Meet Santa Claus

The group pictured above represents most of the 71 present and retired city workers awarded service pins last night at the civic auditorium. The awards denoting faithful service went to retired employes Claude Overstreet, Otto Denny, Cor de Gavere, Ada Lou Hawes, Tillie Doeltz, Joe Biondi, Frank Burns, Lee Sharp, Oscar Staley, Walter Britschgi, Louis Gomes, Jack Rhien, Robert Tait, Ray Bethel, Serafino Francioli, Chapin Day, Alice Mann, Joseph Sylva, John Lee, George Petty, Fred Rountree, Frank Delucchi, Guy Jarrett, William Long, Delbert Lyons and William Blower.

Active employes honored were: Warren Baldwin, Leslie Bias and George Perry, 30 years; Elmer Geyer and Louis Lippi, 25 years; John Girarde, Ben Krupp and William Rossi, 20 years; Albert Achterberg, Howard Carney, Elizabeth Barnes, William Hollingshead and Andrea Pinelli, 15 years; Charley Allen, Roland Dalman, John Maroni, Lyle Loehr, Clyde Stout, Ray Judah and Edwin Neal, 10 years; Romie Anderson, Thelma Anderson, Robert Bergstrom, Anthony Bell, Lawrence Bertsch, Carl Boltschauser, A. E. Davidson, John Gill, Gordon Finch, William Grace, Ernest Huff, Venus Hestand, Leah Knapp, Ralph Lovato, Harry Mayo, Robert Mullen, Robert McCroskey, Winona Randall, Richard Rausch, Alexander Russell, Fred Salter, Nick Sapone, Al Verlinde, Mabel Waterman and Edwin Yantis, all with five years' service.